I am currently working at River Place @ Emily B's & Calla Lilies, living with my dad, until my renovation on Franklin Street is complete. I have lived in NYC, Washington DC and El Paso. I've traveled all over the world and decided it was time to come home.

Thoughts: Who are you now? What is the most important to you now?

I am a fortunate person who has been blessed in so many ways. It's taken me 58 years to finally get it. I've been at the top, making tons of money, meeting famous people and I've been at the bottom. Having Faith, Peace and my family are most important to me now. I don't want anymore drama in my life!!

Something you have always wanted to tell all of your classmates:

"I wish I would have taken the time to get to know you". And to those I was friends with: "I wish I would've kept in touch with you throughout the years".
